

Canadian News: Bake sale fundraiser for hall flooring

A press release at newsoptimist.ca about a bake sale fundraiser in Waseka informs readers that the event to help raise money for the new flooring in Waseca Community Centre will be held in the Community Centre and will be a bake sale at 2 p.m. Dec. 13 following a Christmas church service to be held in Waseca's Heritage Church at 1 p.m. All are welcome.

Readers unfamiliar with the town, Waseca is a village of 154 residents in the Canadian province of Saskatchewan on Highway 16, the Yellowhead in the northwestern section of the province east of Lashburn and west of Maidstone.

Friday, Nov. 27 after school, children are invited to come to the Waseca Community Centre to make Christmas crafts and decorate the Christmas tree. Lunch will be served after school and a hot dog supper will be provided following the making of Christmas crafts and tree decorations.

Sandra Sutherland, Courtice and Felicia Sutherland and son Charles spent last weekend visiting with Grace (Sutherland) Flewell and her husband Lawrence at Red Deer, Alta.

Work has begun at Waseca Rink. There is lots of cleaning up to do before ice can be laid. All volunteers are welcome.

Renee and Maurice Donovan spent last weekend in Saskatoon where all their family gathered for a visit.
