Zack Zehner, Senior VP

Members (and Visitors):

During a routine web search, FCM learned Zack Zehner has been promoted to Senior Vice President of Mannington's distribution and customer service operations.

Zehner, nephew to Mannington's Board Chairman Keith Campbell, worked in the company's Commercial Hard Surfaces business unit for the past three years; he started with the company in 2003. In this new position, Zehner will be responsible for systems applications and products, planning systems, and lean manufacturing initiatives, as well as customer care and distribution services.

Zehner will report to Russell Grizzle, Mannington's executive vice president.
