What happened to the Lobster Grilled Cheese at Bonefish Grill?

I have a safety suggestion and a menu suggestion for the Bonefish Grill.

The safety suggestion I would like to make for Bonefish Grill has to do with avoiding misaps related to slippery flooring. Commercial flooring runners would provide a precautionary safety measure.

The menu suggestion I would like to make for Bonefish Grill has to do with an item presently missing the seafood menu. The fans of Bonefish Grill may remember the Lobster Gilled Cheese sandwich, which is served with lobster bisque soup and a leaf-lettuce, balsamic dressing salad. Lovers of this incredible entre remember how great it tasted, while it lasted.

This popular entre was removed from the menu about a year ago. The staff said that the entre would return next season. Seasons come and go, though the Lobster Gilled Cheese is missing from the menu. I really looked forward to ordering this delicious comfort food, when it was available.

I have not returned to the Bonefish Grill since this entire was removed from the menu. Though I spoke with the manager, who suggested contacting the 800 number. My efforts so far are to no avail and I welcome any suggestions and updates.
