Ovation Flooring introduces Fitnice Marine

Ovation Flooring has developed the first woven vinyl flooring, which is certified by the International Maritime Organization for use within the marine industry. This UK-based, specialist flooring distributor services the retail, leisure, hotel and construction contract markets with range of flooring ideas and solutions; for the contract designer, specifier and architect, respectively.

The stylish, Fitnice Marine is a quiet walk, effortless to maintain and easy to clean with light detergent, bleach or vacuum.

Suitable for use in various areas onboard cruise ships and passenger ferries, including: cabins, spa areas, restaurants, corridors and public areas. Fitnice Marine has already been installed on several vessels. "We identified the obvious benefits of woven vinyl to the maritime industry a few years ago and we have worked hard to develop and bring Fitnice Marine to the market," according to Adrian Ashworth, the director of Ovation Flooring; who added that "we have tested it for water jet cutting and the product works well, in this regard, which will allow us to offer the special designs and custom floors we have enjoyed supplying in our LVT ranges over the past 17 years. Customers are delighted with the results."

Ovation is a world leading supplier of IMO Marine Certified products to the Maritime industry. With global representation and exports to over 40 countries worldwide, their brand of flooring can be found on board many of the world's finest ferries and cruise liners worldwide. This is a trust-worthy, family owned business that specializes in the flooring industry. With warehouse facilities in the United Kingdom, mainland Europe and China, demanding customers can be assured a level of service and satisfaction expected from global suppliers.
