The design fluidity of BOLON's Flow Shell flooring met the design objectives of architecture firm Hassell for the Australian Super corporate office in Melbourne. Hassell created a dynamic, high-performance workplace for Australian Super by integrating warm earthy tones with the cityscape. BOLON's Flow Shell (Silver) was used throughout the office floors to create a natural and soft environment.

The timeless flooring provided a harmonious flow between the work areas and complemented the clean, earthy finishes used across the office. BOLON's Flow Shell (Silver) was installed on 950 square metres of flooring space at the Australian Super corporate office.
