Scottish Homeowners

Trade Prices Direct to the Customer

Lifestyle Flooring has trade prices direct to consumers and an important message for smart saavy, Scottish homeowners:

ALWAYS REMEMBER TO PLAN AHEAD

Stay a step ahead of the impending brexit, lock in low prices before a likely price hike following the UK's imminent EU exit. Materials, the british flooring industry sources, are mostly made on the continent. The UK is one of the primary suppliers for carpet makers, a not so subtle hint: changes to the borders or import rules might have an impact on carpet 'selection'.

Competing on price is unlikely without an increase in domestic production that matches the volume of import production. Higher prices soon follow. At present, the 'when' question is without an answer. The brexit could happen at any time and avoiding a price increase is achievable for homeowners willing to start a home improvement project earlier than planned.
