Annike Laigo 3D wool rug

ANNIKE LAIGO

Annike Laigo is an Estonian textile designer. The most recent innovation is a wavy, hand-tufted wool rug, which is woven from a single color of yarn cropped at different pile heights; the three dimensional visual effect the design creates makes it a rather unique rug. It's named: 3D Stripe. Why?

The wavy surface creates a 3D effect. Clearly, it isn't your typical rug, which brings added value to discriminating buyers exploring the market for a rug that makes a memorable statement.
