What's NOT to like about LVT? Unlike other flooring materials, it picturesquely reflects the appearance of natural materials. It resiliently withstands the foot traffic that commercial environments demand without wearing. And it's easy to clean as well.

Why would any business conscious about their image be willing to sacrifice utility for a pleasant design when there is LVT? Already sold on LVT? Good for you! A suggestion during your supplier search: consider one of the better LVT brands: Parterre Flooring. Ask for their commercial flooring brochure.
